'The activities were more advanced than anything we'd ever done as a group before, but they were really tailored to our needs.'
 - The Ladybarn Project,
 Manchester

We are a Christian based charity set up to give positive and enriching experiences for everyone. We have a magnificent residential Centre set in its own grounds in Broughton - in - Furness in the Lake District National Park. This beautiful and inspiring region is at the entrance to the Duddon Valley, one of Cumbria's best kept secrets. If you want a base from which to discover the Lake District, with great food and a friendly team, then Keppleway is the place for you. Our fully accessible centre offers on and off-site outdoor activities, and plenty of space for everyone to spread out with two lounges, two games rooms and 16 bedrooms of different sizes.

We are ideally set up for mixed ability groups and will cater for whatever kind of visit you have in mind, whether it's an adventure holiday, a church or sports club event, or just to relax and enjoy the Lakes! If you are looking for exciting challenges led by a team of friendly, qualified instructors where everyone has the chance to join in fully, and to build positive relationships in a relaxed, safe environment, then Keppleway is the place for you!

Welcome to Discover@Keppleway
